

E1

The diagram consists of a square frame. Inside the frame, there is a continuous black line representing a curve. The curve starts at the bottom-left corner, rises to a small peak, dips slightly, rises to a larger central peak, dips again, and then rises to a second small peak before ending at the bottom-right corner. The label 'E1' is positioned in the upper-middle part of the square frame.